

Making the Most of Your Space

Apartment-dwellers often complain about limited storage space, but chances are that your apartment is full of unused space: just look up. While surface area and cabinet space may be limited, chances are there's an empty stretch of real estate running all the way around your apartment.

Expand your space by making use of those oft-neglected feet and inches. Floor-to-ceiling shelving and hanging baskets are just a couple of the ways in which you can make good and often decorative use of your unused air space.

Show Your Apartment a Little Love This February

The holidays are over and life is slowly returning to normal. Now -- before the warmer days of spring start to draw you outdoors -- is an excellent time to perform a bit of maintenance.

Check for Drafts - Check your doors and windows for drafts.

Inspect Your Detectors - Make sure that they are operating correctly by testing them on a twice-yearly basis and replacing the batteries, if necessary.

Prevent Frozen Pipes - If the forecast is calling for freezing temperatures, you'll want to turn your faucets on to a slow drip.

Remember - Before performing maintenance repairs in your apartment, check your lease agreement. In many instances, our property management team may be the ones responsible for tackling these issues.

- 4 cups miniature pretzels
- 4 cups strawberry wafers
- 3 cups chocolate Teddy Grahams
- 2 cups popcorn
- 2 cups yogurt covered raisins
- 2 cups Valentine M&Ms

Dump all of the ingredients in a large bowl and mix.

Lastly, scoop a 1/2 cup into snack-size ziploc bags. Enjoy!
